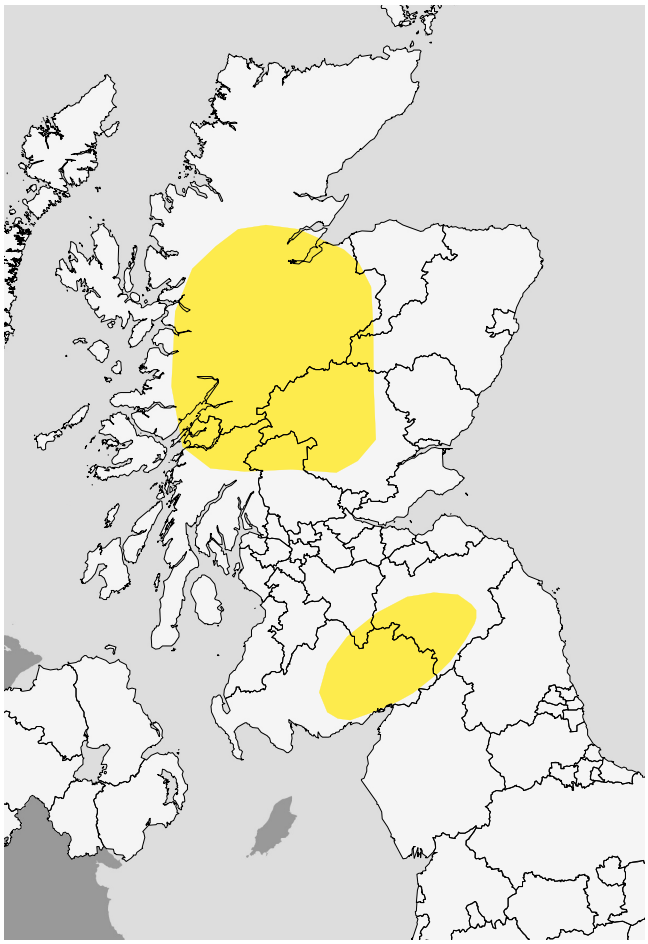
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
20:00 Fri 10 Jan 2020 and
12:00 Sat 11 Jan 2020



Persistent and heavy rain will develop through Friday night

What to expect

- Where flooding occurs, there is a slight chance of delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- There is a small chance of fast flowing or deep floodwater causing danger to life
- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings

Further details

Strong to gale force southwesterly winds will bring outbreaks of heavy rain across Scotland, this heaviest and most persistent across western, central and southern Scotland. While there is still some uncertainty in the peak totals, 40-60mm is expected quite widely, with up to 100mm possible over high ground of Argyll. Rain will clear southeastwards through Saturday.

Very low likelihood of medium impacts
